ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

DARRELL YOUNG

Darrell began as the Director of International Workshops of the Charles Simeon Trust in 2015. Before that, he served as the Lead Pastor at Strathmore Alliance Church near Calgary, Alberta, for 18 years. He studied at Simpson College and Simpson Graduate School of Theology in San Francisco and completed an MABTS at Ambrose Seminary in Calgary.

The Charles Simeon Trust aims "to promote the growth of the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world by training up the next generation of Biblical expositors. To know more, visit www.simeontrust.org

ARVIND MARTIN

Arvind has been a member of Bangalore Presbyterian Church, where he is involved in preaching and leading Bible studies, since 2009. He attended the Cornhill Training Course in Scotland. Before that, he studied at Andhra University and he has been working in computers most of his professional life. He is married to Andrea.

Arvind's primary role as the Charles Simeon Trust Asia Workshops Manager is to work with the Director of International Workshops and the Director of Ministries in the design and implementation of the vision of the Trust's Asian workshop portfolio.

ANDREW CHEAH

Andrew is the Dean of St Mary's Cathedral. He trained as a medical doctor in Adelaide before embarking on a ministry apprenticeship followed by 4 years at Moore Theological College in Sydney. With his family he returned to Kuala Lumpur to serve the church full-time. Andrew is passionate about reaching the unreached with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus and is keen to see God's people disciplined to maturity in Christ and equipped for works of ministry. He loves to eat and can often be seen tucking into a hearty banana leaf lunch. Andrew is married to Judi and they have two daughters, Hannah and Beth.
